THE CIRCLE

*Mitchell College
Statesville, North Carolina
1970 Edition*

Printed by Mitchell College
Statesville, N. C.

We come, anticipating a new life, a birth of freedom, slightly, sometimes wholly rebellious; shucking off adolescence for adulthood . . . scared to be alone, yet exalting in our aloneness. Seeking to become who we are — that unknown person seeking birth into consciousness . . . Wanting to build a better world, in which love abounds; yet learning through our lessons in life that every man is an island and can be bound only gently to a unified purpose . . .

Learning as we learn, that all we have is ourselves, and that in the end, we are alone, as alone as we were in the womb. Now, our womb is the world.

Yet the realization of our isolation brings us closer to our fellow men, and we each become a vital part in the pattern of the world and life.

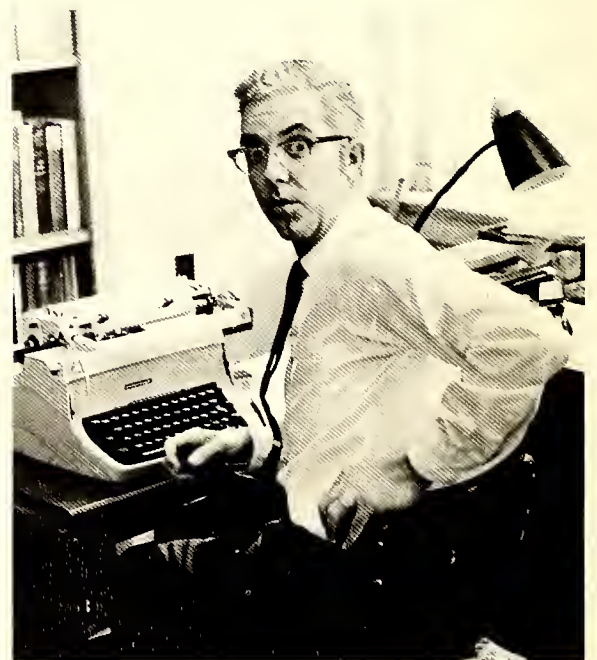

Alone or together, an entity vast and necessary.

"No man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge.

The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness.

If he is indeed wise, he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind."

"For the vision of one man lends not its wings to another man.

And even as each one of you stands alone in God's knowledge, so must each one of you be alone in his knowledge of God and in his understanding of the earth."

Kahlil Gibran

September

comes . . .

. . . bringing new

faces and

new ideas

to Mitchell

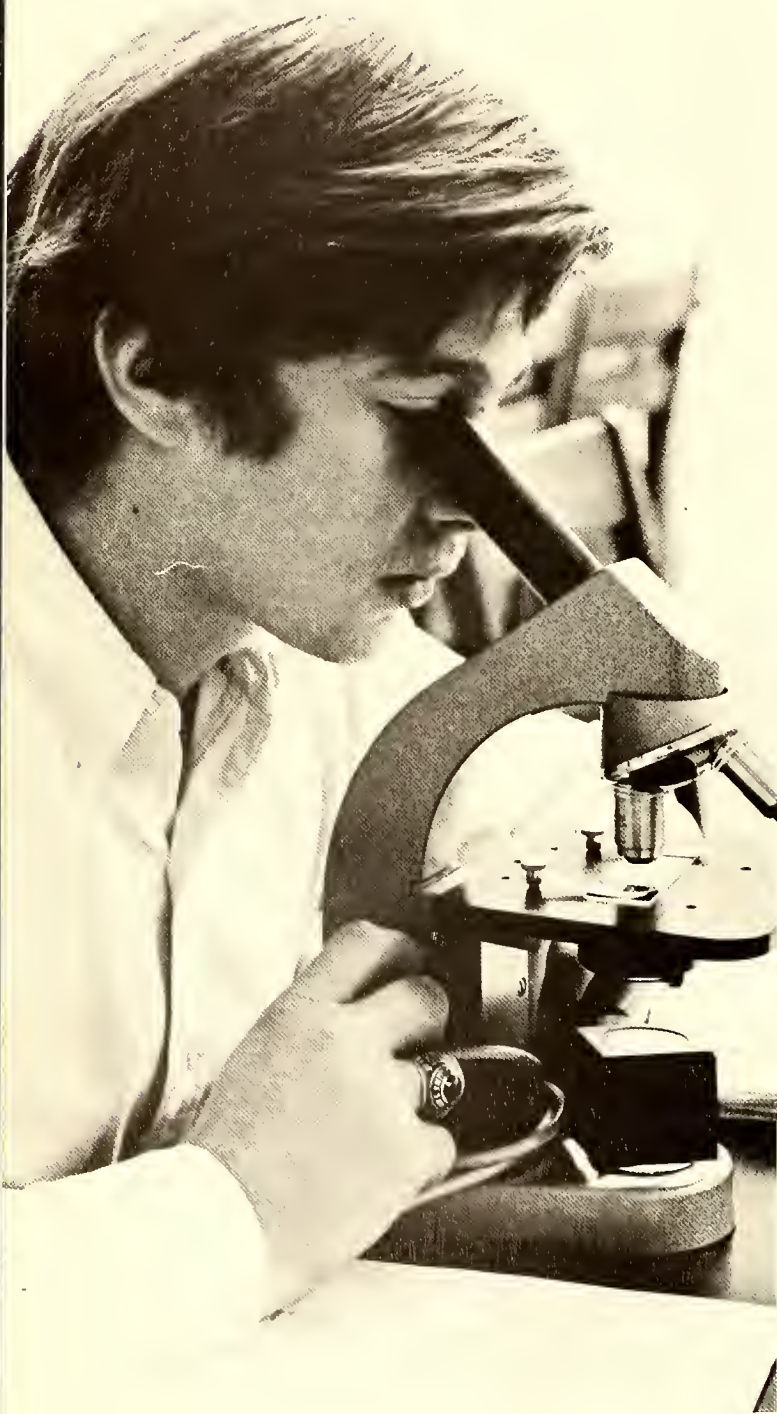

Through the ordeals of registration and adjustment to dorm life the newness diminishes and everyone finds his place.

*Making many acquaintances and too few friends we settle into the patterns
so much a part of Mitchell — study,
classes, the Union,
the Celler, and
more study.*

*Each person doing
what he does best,
though it may only be
eating and sleeping,
but doing something
all the same.*

*Giving of ourselves and receiving so very much from others — ideas,
beliefs, radical or fundamental
though they may seem,
but still an infinitely necessary
part of living and growing.*

Finding out who we are as we become more involved with new people and ideas — engaged in the all-consuming battle to find meaning and a purpose to life.

*A new breed
of people,
different from last year's or
the year to come.*

NEVER LOOKED AT IT THAT WAY BEFORE

SEX: A MORAL DILEMMA FOR TEENAGERS

VALUES FOR TEENAGERS: THE CHOICE IS YOURS

*Trying to change this place with our new ideas — making
a dent, though
small it may be,
in the cocoon that
surrounds our school.*

*Letting a little more world in
each time a few
question the way
things are.*

*Learning to care
about the world
outside, sewing
it into the
patchwork of our lives.*

*Setting the stage
for new and
advanced approaches
to learning. Protesting peacefully against
what we feel
is wrong.*

*Alone and together, trying to keep it moving —
slowly perhaps, but moving forward all the same.*

*Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.*

Paul Simon

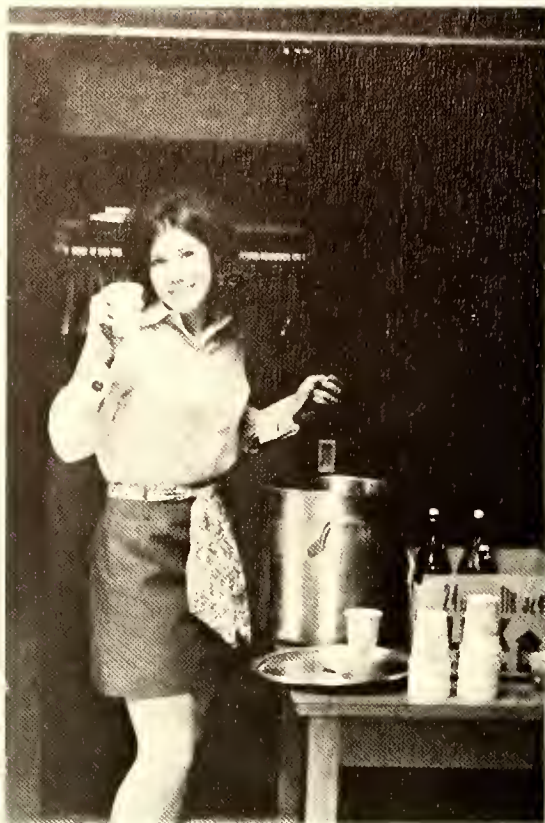

*Preserve your memories;

The creation of a yearbook is an impossible task for one person. Without the help of dedicated people the completion of this annual could never have been accomplished.

Thanks to Mrs. Catherine Cline, Mrs. Jane Chilton, Mr. Don Spencer, and Mr. Herb Eaton for their advice and assistance in the planning and publishing of the 1970 CLCCE.

Most of all, I wish to express my gratitude to Joan, Joe, Charles, Gary, and Bentha; to Joan, for being everything; to Joe, for making us work when we weren't inspired; to Charles, for his brainstorming and his eternal cheerfulness; to Gary, for his imagination and enthusiasm; and to Bentha, for her persuasive smile.

Kathy Munday, Editor
